MOST TEACHERS HERE APPROVE JUNIOR HIGHS

Opposition Based on Lack of Co-ordination in Instruction

Introduction of junior high schools into the Chicago school system is now occupying a place of great importance in the minds of teachers and parents. Investigation of the matter being carried on by the city council is attracting widespread attention. At the same time, meetings of all principals of the city scheduled for 4 o'clock each day at Lane high school during this week and next, have been arranged by Superintendent William McAndrew in an attempt to clarify questions of the instructors regarding the changed system. Prominent educators from the University of Chicago and other institutions will address the meetings.

Opinions differ as to the best method of working out the new system, but for the most part, principals of West Englewood schools agree on the essentials of the plan, and approve of its adoption. Several were interviewed Wednesday by an Economist reporter. Principal Harry Keeler of Lindblom high school, 6130 Lincoln st., is withholding judgment on the question until the type of curriculum to be adopted in the Chicago schools is announced However, Mr. Keeler believes that psychological and physical reasons favor the adoption of the junior high school plan, and declares that the proposed plan will not create class distinction as is claimed by some critics

The general principles of the plan are also approved by Ernest E. Cole, principal of Earle school, 6121 Hermitage st

In 1916 W B. Owen, principal of the Chicago Normal college, secured permission from the superintendent of schools to introduce the 6-3-3 plan in the Parker schools, as an experiment. Though its operation has not been under the most favorable circumstances, both parents and pupils have been well satisfied with the system, Mr. Owen claims. As a constant student of the problem he has found that many benefits are realized under the junior high school system.

Miss Lucy Laing, principal of Bass school, 6554 May st., is more conservative in her views, preferring to be given more time for consideration of the plan before it is generally introduced She stated her views briefly when she said, "Before any junior high school movement is inaugurated extensively the junior high school elements and practices already in operation in the Chicago schools, and their present conduct of seventh, eighth, and ninth grades, must be more thoroughly understood"

IGOE TO SPEAK AT OGDEN PARK FRIDAY NIGHT

Defrees Urges Lions to Back Fine Arts Restoration

Restoration and use of the Fine Arts building in Jackson park will be considered in open forum by Michael L Igoe, recently appointed South Park commissioner, and other members of the board, who will speak at the community program in Ogden park field house at 8 o'clock Friday evening.

Propaganda for the proposed $5,000,000 bond issue, which is to be voted on by south side residents next Monday, with which to preserve the old building, is not the purpose of the meeting, Daniel Russell, park director, stated. The meeting has been arranged for the purpose of informing people of the community of the commissioners' plans for the project.

A plea for the preservation of the Fine Arts building and support in voting for the $5,000,000 bond issue to rebuild it into a large convention hall was made to the West Englewood Lions by Joseph H. DeFrees, prominent attorney, when the club met with the Woodlawn club at the Pershing hotel Thursday of last week

"The old Field museum is considered one of the two most beautiful buildings in the world," said Mr Defrees. "It would have been wrecked years ago had not women's clubs and prominent citizens, interested in art, fought to save it. It should not be allowed to go to rot as the replicas of Columbus' boats were, and as the German building is now

"To save it will be an artistic investment that will pay dividends in furnishing a community center and providing a much needed convention hall that will enrich the city. The South Park board, without a single dissent, voted in favor of the $5,000,000 bond issue. With this sum the outer walls can be restored permanently in stone and the necessary remodeling to make a hall seating 20,000 can be done

"For nineteen years," Mr. Defrees stated, "the Chicago Association of Commerce has had a committee working to bring conventions to this city and, while their work has been successful, every committee, in its annual report, has pointed out the need for a large convention hall The coliseum is out of date and inadequate

"When the committee first was organized 300,000 persons visited the city to attend conventions. Last year 700,000 attended conventions here and it is estimated that they spent over $26,500,000. Cleveland spent $6,500,000 for a convention hall and the first year after it was built the city made a profit of $50,000. St. Louis is spending $5,000,000 for a convention hall and unless we take action to keep pace with them we will lose much of the money that flows into the city from these visitors.

"Jealousy between different parts of the city has been one of the handicaps of building a convention hall in Chicago. There should be little in this project. The spot is easily accessible by the Illinois Central railroad, which is soon to be electrified, as well as by the elevated and surface lines."

The proposition has the endorsement and support of the Association of Arts and Industries, the American Institute of Architects, the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs, the Art Institute, the Union League club and a number of other strong organizations.

MEADE G. A. R. WILL HONOR CIVIL WAR DEAD

—Economist Photo

Henry Cossum, Commander of Meade Post

Especially sacred to the memory of Civil war veterans is Memorial day, with its recollections of '61 and its acknowledgment of the achievements of the men who perpetuated the union of the states during the days when secession threatened. It was following the Civil war that the day was originated and the grey haired men in the dunning blue coated ranks rightly consider it peculiarly their own

Numbering 152 members at the time of its organization in 1884, the George G. Meade post has gradually decreased until the present membership includes only fifty. All of these members who are able to attend the services will meet at the G. A. R. hall, 6236 Princeton ave., at 8 o'clock on the morning of Decoration day. From the hall the post will go in cars to Mt. Hope cemetery, W. 115th st. and Fairfield ave., for the services that will be in charge of Commander Cossum The Rev. Dr. Kendriels will make the memorial address The firing of the salute at the graves will be in charge of the Sons of Veterans, Meade Camp No 8 and all auxiliaries to the post will have representatives at the services From the cemetery the groups will return to the G. A. R. hall to be served a dinner by the Meade Post Relief Corps

Concluding the day's program the members of the post will participate in the big parade of the day beginning at Randolph and Michigan.

Other officers of the post to preside on Memorial day will be Frank G. Royner, senior vice president, V. A. Welton, junior vice president, W. F. Sergent, quartermaster, W. J. Thompson, adjutant S. F. Francis surgeon, Charles Smith chaplain, J. H. Campbell, officer of the day, Charles Smith, patriotic instructor, Frederic Thomas, sergeant major, T. S. Gardner, quartermaster sergeant, Henry D. DREXEL CHURCH WILL EXPAND PRESENT PLANT

Acquire Building for Sunday School; to Enlarge Auditorium

Credited with being the most rapidly growing church of its denomination in Chicago, Drexel Park Presbyterian church has entered upon a building program which includes the acquiring of an extensive Sunday school plant and enlargement of the present church at 64th and Marshfield.

The purchase of the two-flat building just north of the church from Joseph Staltzer was completed Tuesday night by the board of trustees. This will be remodeled and extended back to the alley and will provide adequate facilities for individual Sunday school class rooms. The basement will be converted into a gymnasium.

"We were simply forced to build," said the Rev Clinton C. Cox, pastor of the church. "We have a seating capacity of only 500, yet we have a membership of over 1,000. This means we have been unable to take care of our own people to say nothing of the large group of visitors that attend every service The present church will be extended back to the alley, a distance of thirty feet, giving a seating capacity of 800

"Our Sunday school is now in the same crowded condition as are the church services. We have added almost 100 to the roll since the first of January and now have an enrollment of over 500 not counting the two large adult classes, the women's class of fifty and the men's class with 500 on the roll."

Rapid growth of the Drexel church is further indicated by the fact that six years ago it had a membership of only forty-two.

The drive for $60,000 to finance the building program will commence at once It will be handled by twenty-five or thirty two-man teams under the direction of the board of trustees of which John Wulff, 6512 Paulina st, is chairman.

Possession of the two-flat building cannot be had until August 1, but it is possible remodeling of the church proper will be begun before that time.

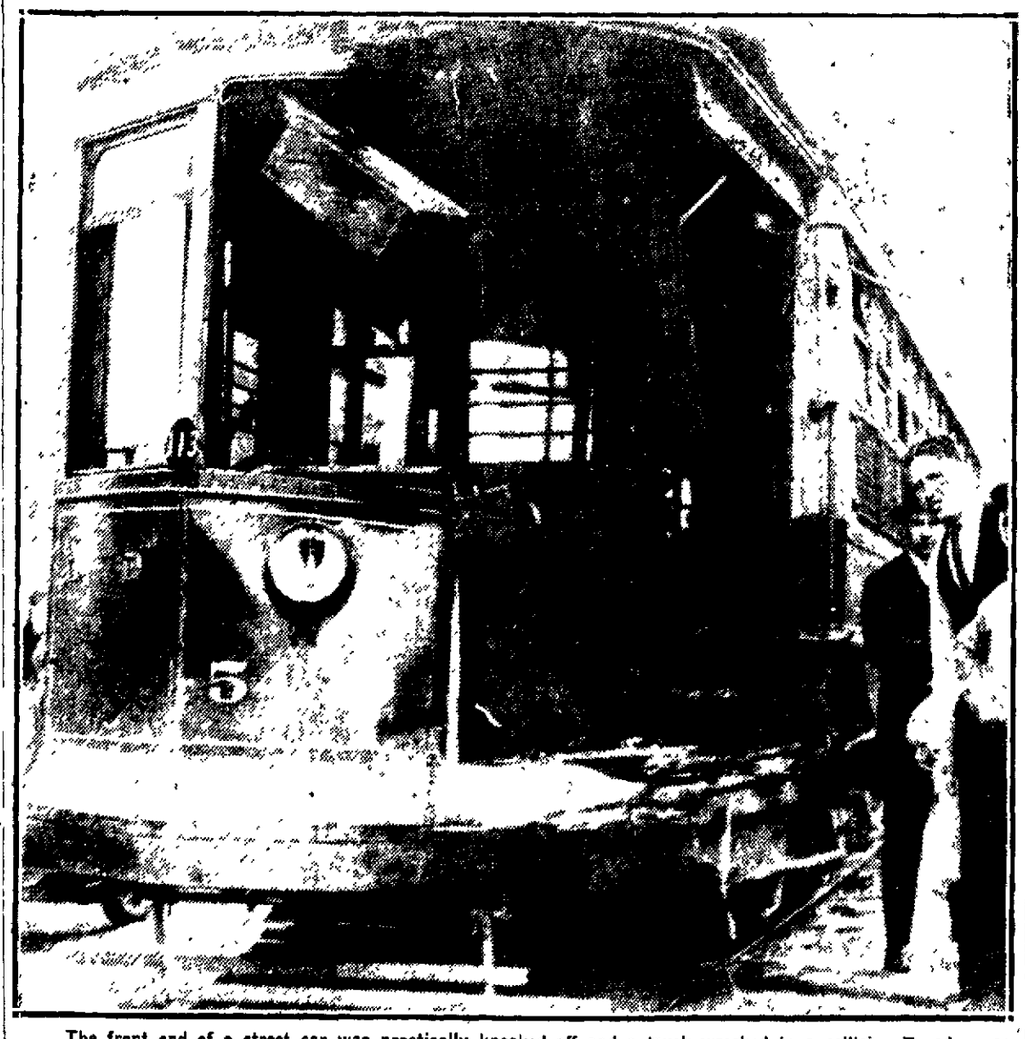
VOICE OBJECTIONS TO AVENUE NAME

Proponents for Woodrow Wilson rd. as the new name for Western ave, will have their innings the morning of June 10 at a public hearing on the second floor of the city hall when they will be permitted to tell the reasons they favor the avenue's changed name

Aldermen of the district expressed themselves for the most part Tuesday as confident that the former name will eventually prevail. Among them Thomas F. Byrne, 15th ward, was a staunch advocate of reverting back to it in preference to Woodrow Wilson rd. The meeting was attended by individual objectors rather than bodies from local improvement associations.

"Confusion will be the chief result of substituting a different name for old Western ave We all know it as Western ave and an established name of that kind should not be changed, said Alderman Byrne.

Elmer Jordan and William Fleming, prominent real estate dealers of West Englewood, were present at the hearing and voiced their objections to the changed name on the score of its harmful effect on business people of the locality.



The front end of a street car was practically knocked off and a truck wrecked in a collision Tuesday noon in front of 1809 W. 63rd st. in which six men were injured. Shown above is the street car though you might have difficulty recognizing it.

Alfred Burke, an employe of the O'Connell System, 2312 W. 63rd st., was said to be driving east on the left side of the street when the crash occurred. Burke, who lives at 6108 Bishop st., Charles E. Lake, 5654 Hoyne ave., a surface lines conductor, who was riding on the front platform William Sinkler, 7016 May st., the motorman, James Neary, 6707 Parnell ave., and two other passengers suffered minor injuries.

COMMUNITY TO PAY TRIBUTE TO WAR DEAD

Patriotic Organizations Here to be in Friday's Parade

War veterans, school children, churches and civic organizations will join in paying homage to Chicago's soldier dead on Memorial day. Special services were held Sunday at many Southtown churches, and schools are planning patriotic exercises for Thursday, when speakers from the G. A. R., the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars posts will address assemblies at the schools. Flowers collected by the children are being taken to headquarters of the various posts in preparation for Friday's decoration of graves.

Legionnaires belonging to the Stanley Sullivan Post, No. 746, will meet at 63rd st. and Western ave., at 8 o'clock Friday morning to go to Mt. Olivet and then to Mt. Greenwood cemeteries, where decorations will be placed on the graves of the veterans of the various American wars. Services at each grave will include the full ritual of the Legion, the decoration, and the firing of three volleys by a full squad over each grave.

Service at Sullivan Grave

At Mt. Olivet an impressive ceremony will take place over the grave of Stanley F. Sullivan for whom the post was named. The firing squad will be in charge of Sergt. Ray Lundy and is composed of Emmet J. Grady, Andrew J. Grady, Aaron Ginsburg, William O'Connell, Robert Heldman, Allen Moynihan, George Flavan, and Walter Bergman.

Besides the regular Memorial day custom that has grown up since the late war, the Stanley Sullivan post has a special task for this Memorial day. Three men from its own ranks have been buried within the last year, and enameled markers bearing insignia will be placed on their graves by members of the post on that day.

Two selections by the Opera club opened the Memorial program at Lindblom high school, 6130 Lincoln st, this morning, Thursday, at 9:30 o'clock. An adaptation of Kipling's "Recessional," by Schnecker, and "The Silent Sea," by Neidlinger, were presented with orchestra accompaniments. Bowlin spoke of the significance of Memorial day and read several poems of the World War.

At the invitation of the Christopher J. Burke Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Lindblom's band will march at the head of the Cook county division of that organization in Friday's parade.

Speakers from the G. A. R. and from the representatives of the American Legion are expected to assist in the patriotic assemblies in the Earle, Harper, Copernicus, Perkins-Bass, and the Gage schools. At these assemblies flowers will be collected among the different grades to present to the legionnaires for the decoration of the graves on Friday.

Patriotic songs and flag drills will make up a part of the program given at the Harper school, while the Gage school will combine the idea of greater educational values with the patriotic appeal of the occasion. A faculty member from the Lindblom high school will present the necessity and advantage of continuing in school work after the grammar grades have been completed. At the afternoon assembly, which will be for the upper grades in the Gage school, the school orchestra under the direction of Mrs. Mary T. Davis will furnish the music, while the children in the lower grades will sing for the morning service.

To accommodate the different classes of the Copernicus school three assemblies have been planned for Thursday. An ensemble presentation of the flag salute, the creed of an American, and the Gettysburg address will be given at the entrance of each of the groups that will make up the three assemblies for the school. These groups are the primary, the middle grades, and the grammar grades, which will meet at 9:15, 10, and 11 o'clock respectively for their memorial assemblies.

Reidy's orchestra furnished the music for the dancing, introducing the cotillion, quadrilles, and waltzes, as well as some of the newer movements.

Have a Definite Reason for Saving!

It has been our experience that saving just as a general proposition isn't the ideal way. The best way is to fix upon some definite objective, and then save hard to get the amount of money required.

It may be a fine vacation you want, or a new piano or a new car or a new home or a bond or an interest in the business; whatever it may be, YOU CAN HAVE IT IF YOU'LL SAVE FOR IT!

VOTE FOR BOND ISSUE

The $5,000,000 bond issue for the restoration of the Fine Arts building in Jackson park, to be placed before voters of the South Park district on next Tuesday, has occasioned more public interest, probably, than have any bond issue questions for similar, or even greater, amounts for many years. The reason is not hard to find. So various and extensive are the uses to which the restored building can be put, and so divergent are the reasons for which different groups are seeking its restoration, that there is scarcely a person in Chicago, and certainly few on the South Side, that will not have some personal contacts with, some immediate interests in, the structure after it is made into the immense convention hall and community center that is contemplated.

The purpose of preserving an architectural masterpiece for posterity was largely what first inspired interest in the project, and has been the motivating power behind the work of various woman's clubs, artistic organizations, and other groups. The concern of the general public in developing the artistic and cultural side in our new, and, to the European, raw country, exists, we believe, in a very real and vital degree. If the building were to be nothing more than a colossal Chicago monument to beauty, expenditure of a large sum would be justified.

But for the more practical minded, there is the other side. Uses of such a nature that actual dollars and cents will be brought into the city as a result of the restoration are planned for. Chicago's need for a convention hall many times larger than anything she now possesses is continually apparent. Edward J. Kelly, president of the South Park commission, has estimated that the projected Fine Arts convention hall will bring 500,000 people and $10,000,000 into Chicago and to the South Side each year. Increased land values, more hotel business, and a general stabilization of financial interests will immediately result. The development for the city that will come as a consequence of the added prestige and importance Chicago will attain when she becomes a recognized center for large meetings of the country it would be difficult to estimate.

And athletic interests are vitally concerned. When not in use by the occasional conventions it is planned to devote the building to sporting events the year around. With the main hall seating about twenty-five thousand, provision will be made for temporary partitions in order that different meets may be held at the same time. So large is the building, that it will be possible to have extensive running tracks—a 100-yard dash may be run without a turn. Great sport meets such as now are possible only in good weather, may be held in Chicago at any time, furnishing unlimited facilities for local organizations and, again, bringing many people here from all parts of the continent.

Voters of the South Side should not hesitate next Monday to put a "Yes" on their ballots in the space allotted for decision on the $5,000,000 bond issue question. The project is a progressive step that the South Side cannot afford to ignore.

CO-OPERATIVE BUYING

The outstanding feature of Chicago's business history during the past few years has been the development of the outlying business district. The Central business section, the "loop" so-called, has not reached the ultimate in expansion, but the past ten years have proven that the more rapid building up of centers outside the loop, comparatively, is the tendency of the times. Community business centers are the logical development in a huge city that has become so large, distances between points are no longer of little concern. How far community business can develop, and just how much this new tendency will mean to local business people and their potential patrons, depends upon how closely the different elements in our community co-operate.

The community public should not trade with the home merchant merely because he is a neighbor. That would be protectionism of an inexcusable sort and prevent the community merchant, through depriving him of the need for competing with merchants of other communities and the loop, from building up a business so attractive that it will draw trade from other sections.

But because your local business man is your neighbor, you shoppers of the Southtown district, you should visit his store and see whether or not he cannot sell to you in a way that will equal or excell the service you receive elsewhere.

If he is not offering real service to the public, then you are justified in buying away from home—in order that your local merchants will develop for your community the right sort of a business center.

If he is, or is even approximating it, then you should shop at home. You will save yourself long trips to other centers. You are buying, probably, from merchants who know you, or at least know that you are a near neighbor, and should, therefore, be interested in seeing that you get the best treatment possible. Your purchase price goes into the product you buy, and does not pay high loop rents. Incidentally, in assisting to build up the local business district you are building up the entire community and rendering a service to every man and woman therein, including yourself.

MEMORIAL DAY

By the Rev. E. V. Griswold, Pastor St. Matthew's Church

We have holidays which glorify the present and holidays which glorify the past. We have days like Labor Day, Mothers' Day, New Year's Day, which for the most part have only a present significance. Most of the other holidays and special days of observance derive their significance from the past, some great fact or event of historic importance. That is, some holidays commemorate the living, while some others commemorate the dead.

Memorial Day, contrary to the implications of the word, carries with it a present as well as a past signification. It is highly significant that on Memorial Day at 12 o'clock noon, by rule and custom, the flag is hoisted from half-mast to full-mast. Half the day it floats at half-mast in honor of the dead; the remaining half of the day it floats at full-mast in honor of the living. The nation is a living entity and the flag at full-staff is symbolic of life at its fullest and best.

So on Memorial Day it is fitting that we remember the living as well as the dead. It is well that at stated times we pause in our busy life, and from the recollection of the deeds and ideals of the past take increased inspiration for the work of the present and the necessities of the future. The flag at full-staff is symbolic of "Americanism." For after all is said and done, "Americanism" is not so much the pride of glorifying the past, great and glorious as that past is, as it is the fullest and highest life of the present, together with such a prophetic vision of the future as will safeguard our beloved country against the insidious wiles of every corrupt, foreign, and hostile influence or power, in whatever alluring disguise it may appear.

IT TAKES 40 YEARS TO BUILD A CEMETERY

Chicago's Most Beautiful Cemetery

Mount Greenwood

Is 45 Years Old

An almost unlimited and constant supply of water is essential in a cemetery to keep the grass green and the flowers, shrubs, and trees at their best.

Twelve Million Gallons of Water

Distributed through over four miles of water pipes in the grounds, and through over a mile of hose, were used in 1923, to help make and keep Mount Greenwood, Chicago's Most Beautiful and Best Cared for Cemetery.

REMEMBER The Mount Greenwood Cemetery Association Pays no Commissions on the Sale of Its Lots, to Any Person. It can, therefore, and does, price its lots to those needing them at what they are actually worth. A dollar expended, purchases in Mount Greenwood a dollar's worth of lot. Nothing is added to pay agents' commissions—there are no such agents employed.

Mount Greenwood is a present thing of wonderful beauty, not a paper cemetery, which can only reach full development a generation hence.

THOBURN NINES 'RING UP TWO MORE VICTORIES

Brunner Strikes Out 19, As Junior Game Goes Ten Innings

Thoburn church nines added a couple of victories to their list Saturday, the seniors trimming the Trinity Congregational team, 13 to 7, at Washington Park while the juniors took a hard fough ten inning game from the Garfield M. E. by a 6 to 4 count at Hamilton Park.

The senior game was featured by W. Jung who drove out two doubles and a triple in four trips to the plate. Trinity held a slim lead up to the seventh inning when Thoburn put across a three run rally. Three more runs in the eighth and another in the ninth netted the win.

Brunner pitched an excellent game for the juniors, fanning nineteen. His opponents' four runs were made in the third when his mates weakened and committed four errors Five hits in the sixth gave Thoburn three runs and Kalchbreener and Brunner, with a couple of long wallops, tied the count.

The next two innings were a pitcher's duel. Then Thoburn opened up in the tenth. Kalchbrenner started off with a walk. Brunner singled and when Baldwin fanned Kalchbrenner and Brunner worked a double steal. When Imhoff whiffed Kalchbrenner and Brunner pulled the same stunt, the former scoring. Anderson's triple brought Brunner home

SENN WINS FENCING MEET: WEAFER STARS FOR LINDBLOM

Englewood gymnasts, with a total of 510 points, won the first annual interscholastic gymnastic and fencing meet held at Englewood high. Senn carried off the honors with the foils by winning thirteen out of their eighteen matches. Lane and Harrison were the only other schools to enter full teams for the apparatus work and they finished following the Purple in the order named.

The Englewood turners showed wonderful form and in three out of the four pieces of apparatus they made a clean sweep of all three first places

Morris Wall, of the Purple team, was the individual star of the meet. Out of a possible 100 points he made 89.5 His team mate, Bruce Hilbrom, led the field on both the horizontal and parallel bars, scoring 24.5 points out of a possible 25.

Summaries:

Horizontal bar—Hilbrom, Englewood, first, 24.5, Wall, Englewood, second, 23, Zaritski, Englewood, third, 21.5.

ST. RITA TRACKMEN LOSE AT MILWAUKEE

Failure to place well in the field events after they had made almost a clean sweep of the dashes cost St Rita high trackmen a dual meet to Marquette University high on the winners' field in Milwaukee Saturday by a 63 to 50 score.

Out of the Rough

By Fred S. Chisbee

Article 16

The question, "Do you make the same swing with your iron clubs that you do with the wood clubs" is asked the golf instructor more than any other.

The player who has more success with playing the irons believes there must be an entirely different swing needed to master the wood clubs or his drives would be better. The one who gets good drives and poor iron shots thinks the same. If these players had more knowledge of the fundamentals of the golf swing they would realize there is really no difference. At least none that would lower the standard of their play with either club.

The real difference if you could call it difference, is caused by the makeup of the club itself. In playing any club it is essential that it be addressed to the ball with the natural lie of the club head effected. Your body position, or stance, is taken in a way to allow the club to be held so the bottom of the club head is flat against the ground. Following this rule in using your wood clubs you will find you are farther away from the ball than you are when using the irons, which are shorter, and the blade lies more nearly upright. Owing to this fact, the swing of the wood club makes an arch of greater area and somewhat flatter. Your mid iron being shorter and the blade more upright, you are brought closer to the ball which causes a more vertical arch to be made when the club is taken back. In making this vertical arch unless the pivot is forced, you will find it is considerably less than when using the driver.

Therefore, the club is prevented from carrying back as far as the wood club. This alone comprises the difference—the makeup of the club itself. There is no physical difference in the swing Of course, this applies to the full shot. The quarter, half and three quarters swing are merely points in the full swing arch where the club is returned to ball for the purpose of regulating the distance of the shot. I will discuss this phase of the iron play in next week's article.

LINDBLOM OUT FOR HONORS IN U. OF C. MEET

Coach Palmer Lines Up Entries by Defeating De La Salle

Lindblom trackmen went through training for the University of Chicago and city prep track meets Monday at Ogden Park by handing a 41 to 36 setback to De La Salle in a dual meet.

Although Lindblom copped off six firsts in the eight events on the card and won the relay, the De La Salle landed strong enough in second and third notches to keep the honors in point gathering fairly equal. The count was tied at 36 all before the relay, the last event, was run off. Victory in this race copped the meet for Lindblom.

Summaries:

100 Yard Dash—Daly, Lindblom, first; Caspers, De La Salle, second; Henning, De La Salle, third. Time—0:10 3-5.

220 Yard Dash—Daly, Lindblom, first. Caspers, De La Salle, second, Hall, Lindblom, third. Time—0:24 3-5.

440 Yard Run—Moran, De La Salle, first, Henning, De La Salle, second, Allan, Lindblom, third Time—0:55 2-5

880 Yard Run—Wojick, Lindblom, first, Conlin De La Salle, second, Johnson, Lindblom, third Time—2:13

Mile Run—Kuhl, Lindblom, first, Quinn De La Salle, second; Reilly, De La Salle, third. Time—5:02.

High Jump—Olson, Lindblom, first, Daly Durkin, Lindblom, and Mackowitz Kelly, De La Salle, tied for second Height—5 feet, 6 inches.

Broad Jump—Foote, Lindblom, first; Henning, De La Salle, second, Mackowitz De La Salle, third. Distance—18 feet, 8 inches

Shot Put—Walsh De La Salle, first; Butscha, De La Salle, second, Barry, Lindblom, third.

880 Yard Relay—Won by Lindblom (Crowder, Hall, Allan and Maher).

Coach Edgar Palmer will enter only three of his stars in the preliminaries Friday for the University of Chicago interscholastic tournament. This meet brings out over 600 prep trackmen from all over the country and to survive the tryouts for the finals, the Lindblom representatives will have to show excellent form

Douglas Allan, Bruno Wojick and Isaac Daly are the three Coach Palmer has decided upon to bear the maroon and gold colors on Stagg field. Daly will run the 100-yard dash In practice and in meets with other schools he has consistenly kept close to 10 seconds. His lowest mark is 0:10 1-5 and he will probably have to do as good as this to qualify in the interscholastic as the record set last year in this meet is 0:09 1-5. Douglas Allan will be entered in the 440-yard run, an event he is able to do in about 0:56 but he will have to do better than this to bring back any points. Wojick will run in the half mile. He is considered Lindblom's strongest entry because of his consistent performance.

A much stronger delegation will be entered in the annual Chicago high school outdoor meet. The preliminaries for the south side schools will be held at Ogden Park next Wednesday. The three Coach Palmer entered in the U. of C. meet stand excellent chances and in addition, among the seniors, Foot, in the broad jump, and Kuhl, in the mile run, loom as prospective point winners.

Leonard Hall is expected to be the strongest cog on the junior team. He has made commendable performances in all of Lindblom's practice meets. He took third honors in the broad jump in the boys' olympics and in a practice meet against Loyola sailed over the bar in the pole vault at 9 feet, 3 inches, a mark 3 inches below the city record Arthur Crowder is another strong junior entry He will travel the 220-yard distance. In the shot put event Lindblom hopes to cop off a few points. Frank Barry, who regularly hurls the iron ball around forty feet, will represent Lindblom in this event.

SUMMER FORMALS FOR TILDEN GRADS

White flannel trousers and blue coats will, for the first time in the history of the school, constitute a uniform garb for youthful forms of June graduates at Tilden Technical high school. A recent vote taken by the sixty-four four year seniors showed less than one-third opposed to the innovation and those were willing to don the flannels if other members of the class wished to wear them at commencement on June 18.

James Plankey is senior president and Frank Cuisiner, of football fame, is secretary. The class annual, which was put into the hands of the printer last week and will be delivered June 10, is said to be the largest the school has ever had and will contain four color pages.

Lawrence Jovtas, 6106 Talman ave., has purchased the two-story brick residence at 6106 Talman ave. for $16,000 from Chester S. Patrick, 845 Crescent pl. Brom & Son represented both parties.

Mrs. Rose Truesdale, 1736 W. 63rd st., has been ill.

ENGLEWOOD LUTHER INSTITUTE WILL ADD HIGH SCHOOL COURSE

PLAN FOR ENLARGEMENT OF SCHOOL IS PRESENTED AT BENEFIT PLAYS

For the benefit of the Englewood Luther Institute, students from the Golgotha school, 1848 W. Marquette rd., aided in giving a drama entitled "Deacon Dubbs" at the school hall, 6309 Yale ave., Thursday and Friday evenings, May 22 and 23. Besides the play, music was furnished for the audience by the R. D. Orchestra, Walter Mueller, and Miss Alpha Roecker.

Speaking for the organization of the Englewood branch of the Luther school the Rev. Mr. Kohn addressed the audience on Thursday evening, while the Rev. Mr. Burgdorf spoke to the Friday group.

To meet the demands of the community the Luther Institute, which has just passed through its first year of existence in the Englewood neighborhood as a business school, will branch out into a regular high school offering the classical studies of the college preparatory course in conjunction with its business training. A preliminary enrolment of fifty pupils for the freshman class in the classical course has been assured for September, with a possible addition of seventy-five for the second semester which will open in February.

Completing the plans for the additional work in the Englewood branch of the Luther high school a committee made up of Theodore J. Wuchmann, 6545 Lincoln st., William L. Meyer, 242 W. 46th st., W. H. Nagel, 3220 W. 61st pl., William O. Raschke, 5954 Richmond st., and Charles Hensch, 5308 Marshfield ave., are working out details for operation of the new high school.

CHARGED WITH THEFT FROM EMPLOYER

Returning to the city after several months absence, Edward DeNormandie 21 years old, 6152 West st., was arrested Tuesday on charges of grand larceny in connection with the theft of $250 from his former employer, Dour's Kutavas, a fruit dealer, 5341 Halsted st.

DeNormandie made his home with Kutavas while he was employed by him and Kutavas alleges the young man left where he was employed. DeNormandie left the city shortly after the money disappeared.

When he was arrested DeNormandie admitted to police that he had spent the money with Alfred Yeager, 21 [illegible] W. 54th st. Later he denied his confession, Yeager was arrested and held with being an accessory to the theft. Cases against both of the youth were continued to June 4 in the Chicago Crossing court before Judge [illegible] A. Curran Wednesday on the motion of their attorney.

BUSINESS MEN HERE JOIN MIDWAY CLUB

A number of prominent Southtown business men are among those who are taking out memberships in the Midway Athletic club, a new club which intends to erect a clubhouse costing in the neighborhood of $2,500,000 on the southwest corner of the Midway and Stony Island ave.

Among those who have joined are Fred C. Rathje, assistant cashier of the Chicago City Bank and Trust company, William G. Tegtmeier, Dr. Charles W. Hillier, Ben Stevenson, Elmer Jordan and Harry Mapp, and those who are seriously considering adding their names to the list of charter members, it is said, include M. D. Price and K. Ray Ballantine.

Life memberships are now being sold by the promoters for $500 and it is their intention to be able to start work on the club house next fall. Englewood members of the club do not share their hopes for such an early start but conservatively estimate that it will be at least a year before the real work is begun.

EXPLOSION IN BONFIRE; TWO BOYS BURNED

Two boys were burned about the face and arms Thursday evening when an explosion occurred in a bonfire about which they had been playing in a vacant lot near Elizabeth and 58th sts. The explosion is believed to have been caused by gasoline in a can thrown into the fire.

The boys were Joseph Pertokas, 10 years old, 5752 Racine ave., and Richard Britschneiser, 9, 5748 Elizabeth st. The Pertokas boy was taken to the German Deaconess hospital by his mother and the father of the Britschneiser boy took him to the Englewood hospital.

TILDEN BAND CHOSEN TO LEAD PARADE

Tilden Technical high school's band, along with that of Lake View high school, led the annual Boys' Week parade Saturday afternoon. At 1 o'clock Tilden's R. O. T. C. joined 5,000 cadets from the city's schools to participate in the review under Major F. L. Beals, chairman of the parade committee, while many Tilden students marched with boys' organizations of which they are members.

The parade down Michigan blvd. came as a climax to the various activities of Boys' Week, which has been incorporated as a permanent institution in Chicago with George W. Dixon as president. President Coolidge is honorary chairman of the national organization, and Mayor Dever honorary head of the Chicago branch.

HOPE CHOIR WILL GIVE SACRED RECITAL

A sacred recital will be given by the choir of Hope Evangelical Lutheran church, 64th st. and Washtenaw ave., at 7:45 o'clock Sunday evening, June 1. The recital will be under the direction of Miss Julia Keith, assisted by Miss Eva Layton, organist, and the professional quartet consisting of Miss Madeline Heed, Miss Keith, H. M. "She'll never see forty again"

Said Mrs. Jones, who was discussing Mrs. Smith with Mrs. Brown.
"She says she's thirty-five," said Mrs. Brown, "but oh, my dear!"

Moral: It's not what you say, but what your face tells.

And no woman ever looked or felt younger by soaking her hands, steaming her face over a washtub, and tiring her body washing clothes.

Why not let the laundry do it?—especially when "Rough Dry" service washes everything; irons flat work; fluffs woolens, hosiery and bath towels smooth, ready to use; and returns other work dry to be dampened and ironed at your convenience.

Buy a Home Today

The value of a home never depreciates, when wisely chosen. The present economic conditions in the United States tend to encourage the man who buys his home now. Within the three past years property value has risen and where there is no over-supply there can not be any reduction. The slowing up of building industry in the last month or so is using up the available supply of properties.

NOW is a good time to buy. NOTHING can be saved by waiting. Visit one of our offices TODAY.
